SUBJECT: ADR 771 (RAD 15L-24)

DATE: November 5, 2015

Pursuant to Commission procedures to refer a matter to the Office of General Counsel following a rejection to participate in the ADR program by a Respondent, enclosed please find the referral of Strong Country for Today & Tomorrow (SCOTTPAC) and Vincent DeVito, Treasurer (Respondents or the Committee). Impasse was reached on October 26, 2015. Therefore, the ADR Office refers this matter to the Office of General Counsel for appropriate enforcement action. Below please find a summary of the matter.

SUMMARY: The Reports Analysis Division (RAD) Respondents for the failure to refund, reattribute or redesignate excessive contributions made for the 2014 Primary and General Elections. Respondents received excessive contributions totaling $62,800 for the 2014 Primary and General Elections from twenty-seven (27) individuals and one (1) non-multicandidate committee. The Committee did not refund, reattribute, or redesignate these excessive contributions within the permissible timeframe. These excessive contributions have now been remedied.

The Committee filed Miscellaneous Paper Documents (Form 99s) on January 6, 2015, January 9, 2015, and September 25, 2015, detailing the refunds made to remedy the excessive contributions. At this time, the Committee wishes to terminate its operations.

The ADR Office records now reflect ADR 771 (RAD 15L-24) as closed. Should you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact us.

- III. BACKGROUND:

Excessive, Prohibited and Other Impermissible Contributions: Failure to Refund, Redesignate, or Reattribute Excessive and Prohibited Contributions Within the Permissible Timeframe

Strong Country for Today & Tomorrow (SCOTTPAC) ("the Committee") received excessive contributions totaling $62,800.00 for the 2014 Primary and General Elections from twenty-seven (27) individuals and one (1) non-multicandidate political committee. The Committee did not timely refund, reattribute, or redesignate these excessive contributions (Attachment 2).

2014 October Quarterly Report

During the 2014 October Quarterly reporting period, the Committee received excessive contributions totaling $35,100.00 from fourteen (14) individuals and one (1) non-multicandidate political committee that were not refunded, reattributed, or redesignated within the permissible timeframe (Attachment 2).

16044100041

On October 15, 2014, the Committee filed the 2014 October Quarterly Report covering the period from August 21, 2014 to September 30, 2014³ (Image 14020860093). This report disclosed excessive contributions totaling $37,700.00 from fifteen (15) individuals and one (1) non-multicandidate political committee.

On October 23, 2014, the Committee filed an Amended 2014 October Quarterly Report (Image 14021113900). This report disclosed no changes from the original report with regard to excessive contributions.

On December 4, 2014, the Committee filed the 2014 30 Day Post-General Report covering the period from October 16, 2014 to November 24, 2014 (Image 14021332391). This report disclosed a redesignation within the permissible timeframe remedying one (1) individual contribution, totaling $2,600.00, that was received during the 2014 October Quarterly reporting period.

On December 7, 2014, a Request for Additional Information (RFAI) was sent to the Committee referencing the Amended 2014 October Quarterly Report. The RFAI noted the Committee's receipt of excessive contributions and requested that the Committee take corrective action⁴ (Image 14330067381).

On January 6, 2015, the Committee filed a Miscellaneous Paper Document ("FEC Form 99") outlining the corrective action taken regarding apparent excessive contributions. The FEC Form 99 stated, in part: "Individuals or Committees that appear to exceed the contribution limits have been refunded or reattributed" (Image 15020020830).

Also, on January 9, 2015, the Committee filed the 2014 Year-End Report covering the period from November 25, 2014 to December 31, 2014 (Image 15020032741). This report disclosed refunds totaling $32,500.00 for contributions from fourteen (14) individuals and one (1) non-multicandidate political committee, received during the 2014 October Quarterly reporting period, that were made outside the permissible timeframe (Attachment 2).

2014 12 Day Pre-General Report

During the 2014 12 Day Pre-General reporting period, the Committee received excessive contributions totaling $22,450.00 from ten (10) individuals that were not refunded, reattributed, or redesignated within the permissible timeframe (Attachment 2).

On October 23, 2014, the Committee filed the 2014 12 Day Pre-General Report covering the period from October 1, 2014 to October 15, 2014 (Image 14021113374).

⁴ At the time the RAD Analyst reviewed the Amended 2014 October Quarterly Report, the 2014 30 Day Post-General Report had not yet been received by the FEC. As a result, the RFAI cited one (1) excessive contribution that had been remedied on the 2014 30 Day Post-General Report.

This report disclosed excessive contributions totaling $22,450.00 from ten (10) individuals.

On December 9, 2014, an RFAI was sent to the Committee referencing the 2014 12 Day Pre-General Report (Image 14330067450). The RFAI noted the Committee's receipt of excessive contributions and requested that the Committee take corrective action.

On January 9, 2015, the Committee filed an FEC Form 99 outlining the corrective action taken regarding apparent excessive contributions. The FEC Form 99 stated, in part: "Individuals or Committees that appear to exceed the contribution limits have been refunded or reattributed" (Image 15020032731).

Also on January 9, 2015, the Committee filed the 2014 Year-End Report covering the period from November 25, 2014 to December 31, 2014 (Image 15020032741). This report disclosed refunds totaling $22,450.00 in General Election contributions from ten (10) individuals that were made outside the permissible timeframe (Attachment 2).

2014 30 Day Post-General Report

During the 2014 30 Day Post-General reporting period, the Committee received excessive contributions totaling $5,250.00 from three (3) individuals that were not refunded, reattributed, or redesignated within the permissible timeframe (Attachment 2).

On December 4, 2014, the Committee filed the 2014 30 Day Post-General Report covering the period from October 16, 2014 to November 24, 2014 (Image 14021332391). This report disclosed excessive contributions totaling $26,700.00 from twenty (20) individuals.

On January 9, 2015, the Committee filed the 2014 Year-End Report covering the period from November 25, 2014 to December 31, 2014 (Image 15020032741). This report disclosed refunds remedying seventeen (17) individual contributions, totaling $21,450.00, that were received during the 2014 30 Day Post-General reporting period.

On January 12, 2015, an RFAI was sent to the Committee referencing the 2014 30 Day Post-General Report. The RFAI noted the Committee's receipt of excessive contributions and requested that the Committee take corrective action⁵ (Image 15330071816).

On January 16, 2015, the Reports Analysis Division (RAD) Analyst spoke to the Treasurer at that time, Paul Kilgore, regarding the RFAI sent on the Amended 2014 October Quarterly Report. The Analyst asked if the Committee was preparing a response and the Treasurer stated the Committee responded by filing two (2) FEC Form 99's. The Analyst confirmed receipt of the documents (Attachment 4).

⁵ At the time the RAD Analyst reviewed the 2014 30 Day Post-General Report, the 2014 Year-End Report had not yet been received by the FEC. As a result, the RFAI cited seventeen (17) excessive contributions that had been remedied on the 2014 Year-End Report.

On February 27, 2015, the RAD Analyst called Mr. Kilgore regarding the RFAI's referencing the Amended 2014 October Quarterly, 2014 12 Day Pre-General, and 2014 30 Day Post-General Reports. The Analyst indicated that due to the lateness of the refunds and redesignations, the issue may be referred to another Commission office for further action. In addition, the Analyst encouraged the Committee to take any other corrective action and provide an explanation for the public record (Attachment 4).

To date, no further communications have been received from the Committee regarding this matter.
